

Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) Compliance

The

Department of Public Works (hereinafter DPW) complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA) and related authorities. DPW does not participate in or tolerate discrimination against qualified individuals with disabilities in any program, service, or activity. Moreover, DPW makes every effort to provide services and operate facilities in a manner accessible to those with disabilities.

Anyone requiring assistance for effective communication or any reasonable modification to a DPW service or facility should contact the ADA Coordinator providing at least        days advance notice.

In addition, DPW has a complaint processing procedure to investigate and resolve claims of disability discrimination. For more information on this or any aspect of the DPW ADA program, contact the ADA Coordinator.
